

Would you rather for teams

Host rules / Keep this page

3-12 players / 5-10 min / 32 original prompts

Use one or two cards at the start of a meeting, rather than treating this as a test of work style. Choices are conversation starters, not instructions for assigning roles or judging colleagues. Start with the host choosing first so the format is clear.

1. Explain that participation is optional and every choice is equally welcome.
2. Read one card, allow a quiet moment, then invite A, B, or pass. In remote groups, speaking and chat are both optional.
3. Ask for one or two brief reasons. Close with "Thanks-let's move to the agenda."

Always room for a pass

Pass freely. Do not ask about salary, health, performance, relationships, or private client work.

In person: use a show of one or two fingers without moving around. Remotely: offer voice or chat and keep cameras optional. These are informal activities, not evidence of improved team performance.

Printing & privacy

Use A4 paper. Print single-sided at 100% / Actual size, one PDF page per sheet. Test one page first. Cut only the card pages; keep worksheets and bingo boards whole. Keep answers with their writers.

Original AI-assisted draft questions. Human English review, group playtesting, physical print quality, and duplex alignment are not yet verified. Planned durations are not measured outcomes.

Print check: measure these bars after printing at 100% / Actual size.

Would you rather for teams

Card sheet / Cut along the thin outlines

F07-001 / REV 2 For an imaginary project, would you rather start with a rough sketch or a one-paragraph brief? A. Rough sketch B. Short brief Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-002 / REV 2 In a team learning session, would you rather watch a demonstration or try a short practice task? A. Watch a demo B. Practice task Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-003 / REV 2 Would you rather have a shared library of templates or a shared library of worked examples? A. Templates B. Worked examples Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-004 / REV 2 Would you rather explain an idea using three pictures or three objects? A. Pictures B. Objects Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-005 / REV 2 Would you rather have a meeting room with movable whiteboards or movable tables? A. Whiteboards B. Tables Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-006 / REV 2 Would you rather start a brainstorm by writing quietly or by taking turns to share one idea? A. Silent notes B. Short idea round Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-007 / REV 2 Would you rather give a new teammate an organized list of useful links or walk them through one task? A. An organized link list B. A task walkthrough Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-008 / REV 2 Would you rather use a five-minute demo to show progress or a five-item checklist? A. Demo B. Checklist Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.

Would you rather for teams

Card sheet / Cut along the thin outlines

F07-009 / REV 2 For a team activity, would you rather build something together or solve a puzzle? A. Build something B. Solve a puzzle Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-010 / REV 2 Would you rather receive a written example of a task or see someone do it once? A. Written example B. Live example Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-011 / REV 2 Would you rather organize a library by topic or by the questions each book answers? A. By topic B. By questions answered Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-012 / REV 2 Would you rather have a shared glossary or a shared list of frequently asked questions? A. Glossary B. FAQs Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-013 / REV 2 Would you rather practice presenting to two colleagues or record a private rehearsal? A. Two colleagues B. Private recording Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-014 / REV 2 Would you rather end a workshop with a quick recap or a short practice round? A. Recap B. Practice round Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-015 / REV 2 Would you rather have a clear first draft early or a polished outline first? A. Early draft B. Polished outline Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-016 / REV 2 Would you rather choose a mascot for a fictional project or design its welcome page? A. Mascot B. Welcome page Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.

Would you rather for teams

Card sheet / Cut along the thin outlines

F07-017 / REV 2 Would you rather try a new planning tool with a sample task or a guided tour? A. Sample task B. Guided tour Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-018 / REV 2 Would you rather label a shared supply cupboard with words or simple pictures? A. Words B. Pictures Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-019 / REV 2 Would you rather build a paper bridge as a team or follow clues on a map? A. Paper bridge B. Map clues Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-020 / REV 2 Would you rather celebrate a small group milestone with a shared playlist or a wall of thank-you notes? A. Playlist B. Thank-you notes Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-021 / REV 2 Would you rather make a set of instructions clearer with a diagram or a worked example? A. A diagram B. A worked example Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-022 / REV 2 Would you rather invent a ridiculous team mascot or give a meeting room a ridiculous name? A. Invent a mascot B. Name a meeting room Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-023 / REV 2 Would you rather welcome a guest with a short tour or a one-page guide? A. Short tour B. One-page guide Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-024 / REV 2 Would you rather test an idea with a cardboard model or a simple storyboard? A. Cardboard model B. Storyboard Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.

Would you rather for teams

Card sheet / Cut along the thin outlines

F07-025 / REV 2 At an in-person workshop, would you rather group ideas on a wall or lay them on a table? A. Wall B. Table Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-026 / REV 2 For an in-person break, would you rather do a seated sketch or a short optional walk? A. Seated sketch B. Optional walk Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-027 / REV 2 At an in-person event, would you rather make a map together or build a paper tower? A. Paper map B. Paper tower Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-028 / REV 2 In a shared room, would you rather use reusable name cards or a seating diagram? A. Name cards B. Seating diagram Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-029 / REV 2 On a remote call, would you rather share one typed idea or say one sentence aloud? A. Typed idea B. Spoken sentence Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-030 / REV 2 When joining a remote team, would you rather get a visual walkthrough or a short guide to useful links? A. A visual walkthrough B. A short link guide Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.
F07-031 / REV 2 In a remote workshop, would you rather sort digital sticky notes or add comments to a sample together? A. Sort sticky notes B. Comment on a sample Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.	F07-032 / REV 2 On a remote team break, would you rather solve a word puzzle or describe an imaginary view? A. Word puzzle B. Imaginary view Answer, listen, or pass. No explanation needed.