Host rules / Keep this page

Adult passengers / parked groups / One question at a time / 30 original prompts

Use these questions for adult passengers, or bring everyone together during a safely parked break. Choose a light opener, a travel story, or an imaginary stop. Real and invented answers both belong here. A passenger handles the screen or cards; the driver does not join or operate the activity while driving. Put the activity away whenever quiet or attention is needed.

1. Before setting off, choose a passenger to read, or save the activity for a safely parked rest stop. Keep the driver out of the activity while driving.
2. Read one question aloud, then put the screen or card down. Invite a short answer, a made-up story, listening, or a pass. Nobody needs to take a turn.
3. Pause whenever quiet is needed. At a safely parked stop, anyone who wants to join can choose another card. There is no timer, score, or need to finish the deck.

Always room for a pass

Answer, listen, pass, or invent a story. Nobody needs to explain a pass. Do not ask the driver to answer, read, look at a screen, or handle cards while driving.

Download the PDF before leaving if you want an offline copy. The website needs a connection to load and is not an offline app. Cut cards before the trip; use paper notes only when parked.

Printing & privacy

Use Letter paper. Print single-sided at 100% / Actual size, one PDF page per sheet. Test one page first. Cut the card sheets; keep this host page whole. Take any paper notes only when parked.

Original AI-assisted draft questions. Human English review, group playtesting, physical print quality, and duplex alignment are not yet verified. Planned durations are not measured outcomes.

Print check: measure these bars after printing at 100% / Actual size.
