2-8 adults / One card or a short shared round / 24 original prompts

These 24 offsite cards offer a seated opening or a break-time conversation for a small adult work group. Choose practical welcome ideas, a shared pause, or a fictional retreat. They are separate from training, employee evaluation, and outdoor challenges.

1. Choose a seated opening or an agreed break, rather than interrupting the offsite schedule. Make joining and leaving the conversation easy.
2. Read one card and invite volunteers. Keep examples general; do not ask for client details, private work, travel spending, or personal explanations.
3. End at the agreed point and return to the schedule. Do not record who spoke or turn answers into feedback about employees.

Always room for a pass

Answer, invent an example, listen, think quietly, or pass without explaining. Keep participation voluntary; do not score, record, or evaluate replies.

Use general or invented examples. Keep private information out of the activity. No account, shared online room, or response upload is part of this page.

Printing & privacy

Use Letter paper. Print single-sided at 100% / Actual size, one PDF page per sheet. Test a page first. Cut only card sheets; keep notes and worksheets whole. Do not collect answers.

Original AI-assisted draft questions. Human English review, group playtesting, physical print quality, and duplex alignment are not yet verified. Planned durations are not measured outcomes.

Print check: measure these bars after printing at 100% / Actual size.

A small host plan.

A shared invitation

One card, optional replies

1. Choose a seated opening or an agreed break, rather than interrupting the offsite schedule. Make joining and leaving the conversation easy.
2. Read one card and invite volunteers. Keep examples general; do not ask for client details, private work, travel spending, or personal explanations.

An offsite break

Adapt or stop at the agreed point

1. Use A shared pause with a few willing people. The activity can end after one card and does not require everyone at the offsite to join.
2. End at the agreed point and return to the schedule. Do not record who spoke or turn answers into feedback about employees.

Host checklist

- Explain how the activity ends before it starts.
- Keep listening, passing, and quiet thinking available.
- Do not collect, rank, photograph, or publish answers.
