2-8 adults / One card or a short shared round / 24 original prompts

These 24 short prompts are for adult language exchange partners. Begin with a few words, explain an ordinary object, or invent a tiny scene. Agree which language you want to use; this is conversation practice without a score or proficiency assessment.

1. Agree on a language and whether corrections are wanted before choosing a card. Keep joining, listening, and passing optional.
2. Offer time to think. A word, phrase, paraphrase, or a sketch on your own paper can be enough; nobody has to imitate an accent or answer quickly.
3. Ask before correcting or adding vocabulary. Close after the agreed number of cards without ranking fluency or collecting answers.

Always room for a pass

Answer, invent an example, listen, think quietly, or pass without explaining. Keep participation voluntary; do not score, record, or evaluate replies.

Use general or invented examples. Keep private information out of the activity. No account, shared online room, or response upload is part of this page.

Printing & privacy

Use A4 paper. Print single-sided at 100% / Actual size, one PDF page per sheet. Test a page first. Cut only card sheets; keep notes and worksheets whole. Do not collect answers.

Original AI-assisted draft questions. Human English review, group playtesting, physical print quality, and duplex alignment are not yet verified. Planned durations are not measured outcomes.

Print check: measure these bars after printing at 100% / Actual size.

A small host plan.

A shared invitation

One card, optional replies

1. Agree on a language and whether corrections are wanted before choosing a card. Keep joining, listening, and passing optional.
2. Offer time to think. A word, phrase, paraphrase, or a sketch on your own paper can be enough; nobody has to imitate an accent or answer quickly.

A pair exchange

Adapt or stop at the agreed point

1. Read one card, give both people thinking time, and invite a reply from either person. Ask before offering a correction or suggested phrase.
2. Ask before correcting or adding vocabulary. Close after the agreed number of cards without ranking fluency or collecting answers.

Host checklist

- Explain how the activity ends before it starts.
- Keep listening, passing, and quiet thinking available.
- Do not collect, rank, photograph, or publish answers.
